

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, many natural disasters are caused by tornadoes in the State of Wisconsin, with significant impact upon all those who are affected; and

WHEREAS, tornadoes create emergencies of great concern to the State of Wisconsin, with imminent threat to life and property; and

WHEREAS, severe thunderstorm phenomena such as powerful wind gusts, large hail, flood-producing heavy rains, and lightning pose a threat to the lives, safety and property of the citizens of Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS, 13 tornadoes touched down in Wisconsin in 2006; and

WHEREAS, in 2005, a record 62 tornadoes spun up in Wisconsin, breaking the previous record of 43 tornadoes for one year set back in 1980; and

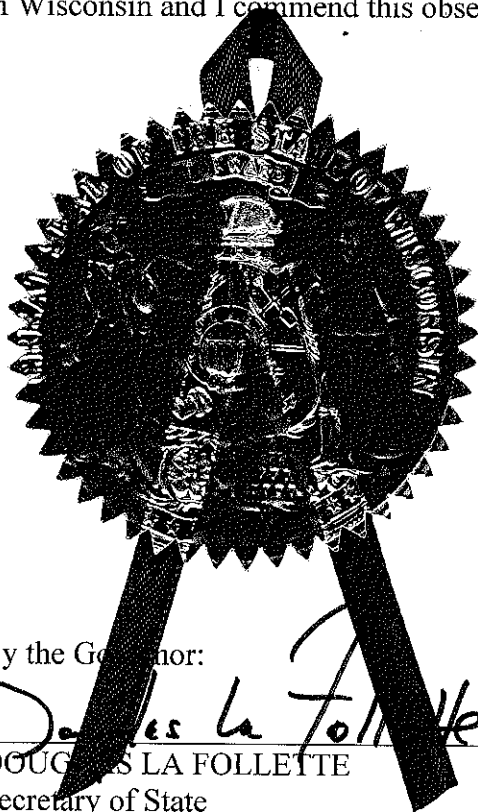

WHEREAS, tornadoes, severe storms, flooding and strong winds have caused millions of dollars in damage to homes, businesses and local government infrastructure in Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the State of Wisconsin can be seriously affected by tornadoes and severe weather, and it is essential that we increase awareness of the dangers of severe weather hazards and the protective actions which can be taken by citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Doyle, Governor of the State of Wisconsin do hereby proclaim April 9-13, 2007, to be in Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all citizens.
